Spirit Week

Spirit week is a time when students alter their daily attire to show dedication and support for school activities. During the week, days are assigned as pajama day, college t-shirt day, backward day,and twin day. Blue and gold day finalizes the week and seems to have the most participation, since these colors reflect our school's athletic uniforms.

Blue and gold day supports the football team and lets them know that they have school spirit behind them.

The Spirit Queen Stacy Zuspan spreads school spirit. We choose our queen every year at a pep-rally. This year, for the first time, we have choosen a spirit king. The 2002-2003 spirit king is Taylor Baily and the spirit princess for 2002-2003 is Tasha Conway.

Cinderella Ball

The Cinderella Ball was held on November 18, 2001 at the Carmicheals High School Gym. The colors were white, blue, and purple. The theme was "Sweet November." The song was "Everytime I Close My Eyes" by Babyface. The gym was decorated by the junior standing commitee. Mrs.Batis was in charge of operations. This years Cinderella Ball programs were made by junior Codi Yoders. The D.J. was Danny Batis. Everyone had a great time and will remember the evening for years to come.

PROM NIGHT 2002

Remember Me This Way

John Grosholz, Chrissy Antonelli and Shana Krajnak dance the night away.

Enjoying the night with friends, Hannah Schlesinger, Erin Zavage and Crystal Walters smile on the dance floor.

As one of a senior's last high school activities, prom is a time to shared with teachers as well as friends. Beth Chambers, Mrs. Corr and Stacy Zuspan pose for one last photograph.

A group of students sings along with the DJ's music, as Jackie Rodavich snaps a picture for her scrapbook.

After all of the hours of preparation, Beth Chambers, Chrissy Antonelli, Tonya Conway, Stacy Zuspan and Angie Lasko are ready for tonight.

Sheena Miller and Alexis Watters are ready for the evening's excitement.

Remember Me This Way...

...served as the theme for the prom held at Lakeside Party Center in Uniontown. Students transformed themselves from low-rise jeans and t-shirts to evening gowns as they enjoyed an elegant dinner and took to the dance floor. Afterward, they headed to Valley Worlds of Fun and partied through the night with cosmic bowling, laser tag and go-carts.

The Grand March was staged in the early afternoon. The auditorium became a land of giant colored flowers and a gateway to the stars as the ladies passed over the lighted bridge to a night they would not forget.

Senior class sponsors were Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. Martin. Special thanks to them for their hard work. Gratitude also to the senior standing committee, Donna's Doll House and the parents who supported their children for this night.

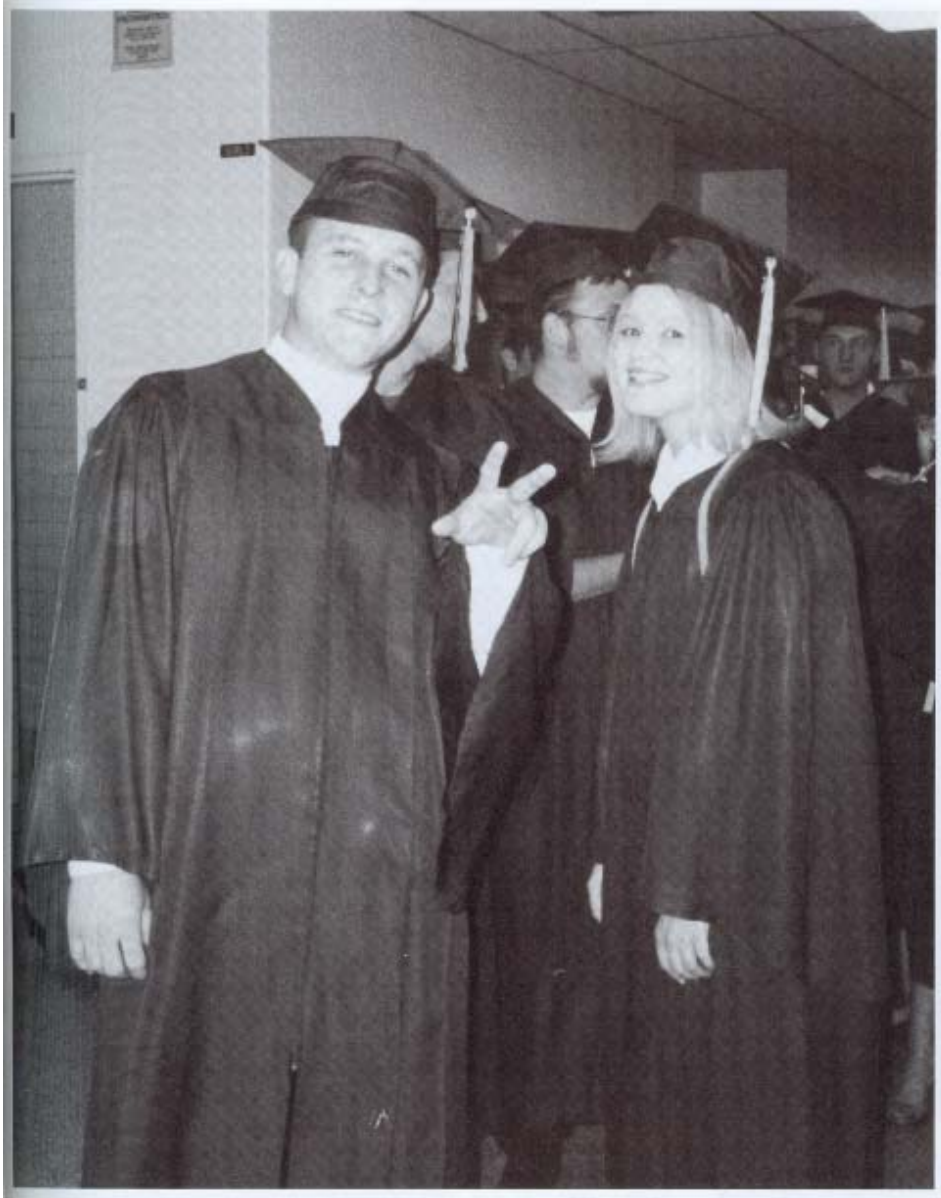
Graduation
was held in the gymnasium on May 31

CLASS OF 2002

Connessa Morris, Jared Riley, Michael Davis, James Glendenning, John Glendenning and Tim Cobb eagerly await time to form the processional.

Valedictorian Linette Zabrosky addressed the class during commencement.

Chorus members Sandy Bruce, Heather Glover, Ashley Kurtyka, Autumn Willis and yearbook photographer Christina Kittredge pose as they prepare for the ceremony. The chorus' program would include "Like an Eagle" and "America the Beautiful."



Ryan Baker and Melissa Anderson are more than ready as they take their place in line to walk across the stage.

Guest speaker Mr. David A. Bocchini enters the gymnasium to present his speech entitled "Preparing for the Future."

Salutatorian Anne Bobich quoted Andy Rooney in telling her classmates "being kind is more important than being right."

In the moments after the ceremony, Anthony Karlowicz, Gary Thurby, Dan Brioli and Matt Rychtarsky say goodbye.

Diplomas in hand, DJ Baker, Chris West, R
Husenits and CJ Sanner wait by the Coke chines to meet their family members.

C MIKES

Once a Mike, Always a Mike

Though seniors stepped into a new world tonight, they will know they are forever welcome here.

Matt Rychtarsky and Dana Bradmon will be greatly missed by the chorus and technical departments. Both have been an integral part of many performances over the past four years.

Aaron Workman talks with senior English teacher, Corey Corwin, as he prepares for the ceremony.

Class president Elaine Wood addressed her fellow graduates and gave the 2002 class roll call.

Senior chorus members Kristen Judy, Jenn Quesada, Gina Rhodes, Jill Virgili, Alexis Watters and Dana Bradmon prepare for their final CAHS performance.

National Vocational-Technical Honor Society member KaSaundra Horner gets support from a family member before commencement.

Spring Fling

Color Everywhere

In April, the 9th grade Spring Fling was held at the Carmichaels Senior Citizens Center. This night was hosted my Mrs. Batis and the 9th grade student council. The theme of the dance was Color Everywhere. The song was entitled "Color Everywhere" by Youth Asylum. The colors were all pastel. The King was Joey Piper and the Queen was Chantel Brambach. This dance is very important in a freshman's life because it gives them a taste of what's to come. Thank you to everyone who helped out. The dance was beautiful.

GOLF

Your 2001Golf Team:
Coach: Mr. McCombs, Joey Menhart, Tim Lewis, Jeremy McIntire, Jamie Kowalcyzk, Kenny Tennant, Stephen Michalik, Jamie Bandish, Sean McCombs.

Two indivudals, Jamie Bandish and Sean McCombs, advanced through the 1st Round WPIAL tournament by scoring among the top eight golfers at the Section Qualifers h Carmichaels Golf Course. Forty golfers (the top five from each section team) took part competition.

They then represented Section 8 and Carmichaels High School at the WPIAL Semifinal at Chippewa Golf Course in Bentleyville Pa. The top 8 scorers from the 5 section qualifier part with the top 10 to advance to the WPIAL finals.

Jamie and Sean were unable to score in the top 10 finishers and were eliminated from t WPIAL Competition. It was a great experience for both golfers.

The golf team had a section record of 6-8 and an overall record of 7-12. With only one letterman returning from the 2000 season, the team came through with a very strong performance which makes the outlook expectations for the upcoming years very positive. All members of this year's squad are returning as there were no seniors!

Building spirit is one of the many challenges a new team faces. Here, the group huddles to discuss strategy before the next half.

Waiting on the sidelines of their new field and ready to enter the game when called, the Carmichaels bench cheers their teammates to a victory.

A Whole New Ball Game

For the first year, the fall sports schedule included a soccer season.

The team was made of both boys and girls and was operated as a co-op with the Jefferson Morgan Rockets.

Coach Chris Eaton and Assistant Coach John Hess started the program with a successful year.

The team will continue to play, but as separate boys' and girls' squads next season.

Josh Grim, Brynn Cirota, and Tonya Conway are taking a break for their busy schedule.

Polly Penich cleans out her locker for the last time.

Pictured to the right: Amber Willis, Christina Kline, Ben Speggen, Joa'i Koratich, Mr. Willis, and Ashley Kurtyka take time out from a lab in chemistry for a picture.

Mr. White takes time out of his day to relax from his busy schedule.

Brandon Lambert, what did you do to your hair?

Josh Novotny rolls across the room in his chair as he puts the garbage can back.

Megan Samek and Jenn Bednar show how photogenic they are.

Mary Ann Rush, Tasha Conway, And Dottie Virgili take a quick picture before the bell rings.

This page stands as a tribute to those who gave all that day and to those who will never be the same.

Oh, say can you see
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming.
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
Through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched
Were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare
The bombs bursting in air
Gave proof, through the night
That our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.
~ Francis Scott Key

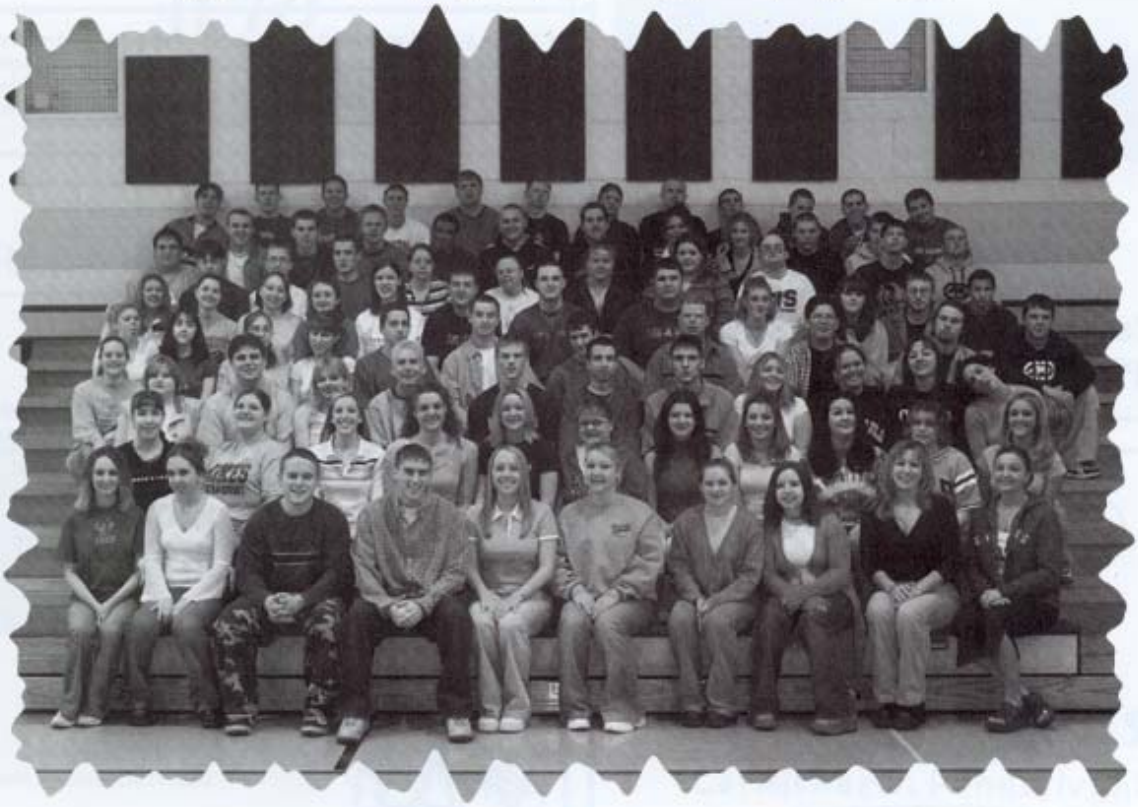
2002 SENIORS



Friends in high school are forever young.
Unchanged, they're where you always will belong.
The crowd is never gone, the pleasure stays,
The music of the moment always plays,
The time remains a field of wistful grace,
To which you may return from anyplace.
Of course, you may still know them later on
When you are someone else and years have run;
And you may love them dearly, and they you,
But time must make their friendship something new.
Meanwhile, flourishing within your heart,
There is a whole, of which you were a part:
A group of friends, one in love and pain,
In whom your longing comes alive again.
